OBJECTIVES

This course aims to provide an understanding of the international dimensions of external financial reporting and financial statement analysis for effective operation in the global business environment. The internationalisation of business and the world's capital markets has created accounting challenges for the multinational enterprise and the parties interested in the preparation or use of its financial reports including finance directors, accounting executives, investment analysts, auditors, accounting standard setters, regulators and the multinational's competitors.

Major environmental influences on accounting internationally are assessed and international patterns identified. A comparative analysis of accounting regulation and reporting in selected countries is undertaken in the context of each country's cultural, political, legal and business environment. A review is made of the attempts at the convergence or harmonisation of accounting rules and underlying concepts across national jurisdictions by major international alliances including the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB) and the European Union (EU).

The challenges in analysing foreign financial reports are reviewed along with the effects of different sets of national GAAP (Generally Accepted Accounting Principles) on reported profits and shareholders' equity. A variety of important financial reporting issues are analysed including the treatment of foreign currency transactions and the hedging of exposure risk as well as multinational consolidations requiring the translation of foreign currency financial statements. The credibility added by the auditing standards and practices in different countries is examined together with the trend towards the internationalisation of auditing.

At the end of this subject you should understand:
(a) the challenges faced by a multinational enterprise in reporting to external parties,
(b) how financial reporting differs from country to country,
(c) the reasons for the differences and the degree of progress in reducing the diversity,
(d) the usefulness and limitations of the disclosures in particular countries, and
(e) the implications for and impact on global financial analysis.

The dimensions of international accounting concerned with reporting to management on multinational operations are covered in ACCT5955 Value-Based Management in a Global Economy (to be offered in First Session, 2004).

TEXTS

You will need both these texts. Bring your texts to each scheduled period as there will be reference to various figures, questions, exercises and cases from the texts during class. You will be supplied with the prescribed reading that is not from the texts.

The mid-session examination will be held in class time in Week 9 (Monday, 22 September 2003). It will cover the work covered in Sessions 1 to 6. The final examination (which will concentrate on the work covered in Sessions 7, 8A and 10A to 13A) will be held in the official UNSW examinations period from 14 November to 2 December 2003.

TIME: Monday, 6:00 to 9:00 p.m.

LOCATION: Room 1048, Quadrangle Building.

STAFF:

Associate Professor Malcolm Miller
Room 3082, Third Floor, Quadrangle Building
Telephone: 9385-5820 (Direct)
Email: m.miller@unsw.edu.au
Consultation hours: Tuesday, 4-5pm and Thursday, 2-4pm

Malcolm Miller is an Associate Professor in the School of Accounting and the School's Co-ordinator for the Master of Commerce Programs. He undertakes teaching and research in the area of financial accounting and reporting. In particular, he is interested in issues relating to accounting standards, the regulation of financial reporting and international accounting. He was a Vice-President of the International Association for Accounting Education and Research (IAAER) from March 2000 to November 2002. He was a member of the Consultative Group to the Australian Accounting Standards Board from 1998 to 2003. He was a member of the Australian Accounting Standards Board for four years to 31 March 1995. He was a member of the Public Sector Accounting Standards Board for three years (1987-1989). In 1995 he was a Visiting Scholar at the University of Reading and in 1977-78 and 1983 he was a Visiting Associate Professor at New York University. He held a senior position in the Sydney office of KPMG prior to joining the University in 1971. He has published extensively including research monographs for the Australian Accounting Research Foundation and papers in _The Accounting Review, Accounting and Business Research, Australian Accounting Review, Advances in International Accounting, Accounting Forum_ and _Charter_. In July 2003 he received the AFAANZ Outstanding Contribution to Practice Award.
INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL ANALYSIS PROJECT

Students (particularly those who feel they are disadvantaged by closed-book, fixed-time examinations) may submit a project. Also, students who do badly in the mid-session examination can recover some ground with a good project. If attempted and submitted, the project will be marked out of 15. The marks for the other assessment units will be scaled back - so the marks for those units will be out of 85.

The project involves a comparative analysis of two multinational enterprises with headquarters in different countries but operating in the same industry (or two conglomerates). Many annual reports are available on the Internet. It is acceptable to obtain your reports that way.

Using the most recent annual financial reports, attempt the following questions:

(a) identify the main similarities and differences in accounting principles applied. In particular, comment on the two corporate groups in terms of how they deal with and make disclosures on:
   (i) business combinations and consolidation of subsidiaries,
   (ii) intangibles, and
   (iii) segments.

(b) identify and evaluate any information provided on the impact of changing prices on each enterprise.

(c) discuss the impact of foreign exchange on each enterprise. (That would include management’s discussion of the changing value of the domestic and foreign currencies on financial results, and a comparison of the translation methodologies of the two enterprises.)

(d) identify three important disclosure differences between the two annual reports. Do the differences in disclosure appear to be explained by any particular factor (e.g., legal system, financing system, culture)?

Turn in the two annual reports along with your answers.

There is no specific word limit for the project.

The project will not be accepted after Monday, 27 October 2003.

Guidelines on the presentation of written assignments (as amended 7/01) for School of Accounting students are on the School’s web site (www.accounting.unsw.edu.au) under “Student Information”.
SPECIAL CONSIDERATION

It should be noted that special consideration is available only to students confronting abnormal and significant difficulties in completing this course. University regulations must be consulted before applying for formal consideration. It should be noted that illness or personal problems do not ensure that supplementary assessment will be granted automatically. In addition to the normal University application for consideration, students should lodge a detailed written application with Associate Professor Malcolm Miller or his secretary, Ms Bibi Moore (Goodsell Building, Room 16, Tel. 9385-3719). Details of the consideration will be treated in confidence.

For further information visit: http://www.student.unsw.edu.au/atoz/atoz-Special.shtml

ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

Students are reminded that the University regards academic misconduct as a very serious matter. Students found guilty of academic misconduct are excluded from the University for two years. However, because of the circumstances in individual cases, the period of expulsion can range from one session to permanent expulsion from the University.

The following are some of the actions which have resulted in students being found guilty of academic misconduct in recent years: taking unauthorised materials into an examination; submitting work for assessment knowing it to be the work of another person; improperly obtaining prior knowledge of an examination and using that knowledge in the examination; and failing to acknowledge the source of material in an assignment.

SUPPORT INFRASTRUCTURE

The following services are recommended to students requiring additional and specialised support.

Education Development Unit

Learning and language support, tailored to the needs of FCE students, is available from the Education Development Unit (EDU) in the Faculty. Students may consult the EDU for free advice and assistance with assignment writing, academic reading and note-taking, oral presentation, study skills or other learning needs. The Unit is located in Room 2039, Level 2, Quadrangle Building. (Phone 9385 5584 for an appointment.) Additional information is available from the unit’s website (http://education.fce.unsw.edu.au).

Learning Centre

In addition to the EDU, the Learning Centre provides academic skills support services for UNSW students. Assistance is provided through workshops, discipline-based courses and individual consultations. The Learning Centre is located at Room 231, Level 2, Library Building. (Phone 9385 3890 for an appointment.)

Counselling Service

Students experiencing disturbing problems of a personal, family or financial nature are encouraged to contact the Counselling Service at UNSW. This service is free and confidential and run by professional counsellors. The Counselling Service is located at Level 2, East Wing, Quadrangle Building. (Phone 9385 5418 for an appointment.)
Each topic will be previewed a week ahead of its scheduled coverage in a seminar. For instance, Topic 2A and Topic 2B will be outlined in Week 1. This will alert you to the main learning objectives for the topic and what to focus on in your studies for the next week.

You should complete the set reading and assignments before each seminar. During the seminar we will consider the assignments and engage in activities to achieve the desired learning outcomes for the topic. It is anticipated that the typical student will need to allocate 10 to 12 hours a week on average for the course (including reading, completing assignments, attending class, preparing a case for presentation, and drawing together and revising course material).

I will endeavour to review in each seminar all the assignments set for the seminar along with the “other relevant activities”, when the answers are not easily found in your texts or other reading. Please request me at the start of each seminar to cover any aspects that are puzzling you. With a lag of one week, I will provide you with suggested solutions to most of the questions and exercises from the texts.

Document your completion of the assignments by bringing a hard copy of their solutions to class. This will be the hand-in component of the course. Each hand-in is worth 5 marks. I will collect (unannounced) 4 hand-in assignments throughout the session, but only the best 3 will form part of the final assessment. Late assignments will not be accepted. The mark out of 5 will be based on the following criteria:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Attempt Type</th>
<th>Description</th>
<th>Mark</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Excellent</td>
<td>A comprehensive attempt to all questions and exercises. Assignment reflects not only correct responses but in addition, a degree of consideration of the issue in question. Assignment is also concise and well written.</td>
<td>5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Good</td>
<td>A comprehensive attempt to all questions and exercises generally done in average depth. Assignment shows that a good effort had been made. Most responses are appropriate but some errors in content and/or written expression.</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Fair</td>
<td>Reasonable attempt made at all questions and exercises; however, some answers are incorrect and failed to cover the issue in question.</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Poor</td>
<td>Failure to address several questions in sufficient depth.</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Very Poor</td>
<td>Assignment submitted but only a superficial attempt had been made to complete the assignment</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>N/A</td>
<td>Late submissions or no assignment submitted</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Whilst word processing is encouraged, neat and legible handwriting is also acceptable. Copying from the textbooks and reading materials is OK provided you acknowledge direct quotations. In general, you are encouraged to express the answer in your own words as that is likely to help you learn the material.

Plagiarism

Students found to have committed plagiarism in their hand-in assignments will be severely penalised. They will be given a mark of zero out of 15 for the assignment component and they will fail this subject. Further action will be taken in serious cases, which could result in the student being excluded from the University for one or more semesters. See section on "Academic Misconduct" in the course outline or the University webpage on: (http://www.student.unsw.edu.au/academiclife/assessment/academic_misconduct.shtml).

Section 2.3.1 of the UNSW Student Guide defines plagiarism as "using the work of another person and presenting it as one's own". Before writing your assignments, all students should read the section on academic misconduct and student misconduct.
Week 1 (28 July)

Introduction

Week 2 (4 August) – NO Class

There will be NO class in Week 2 of session. However, there will be two classes in Week 3 – one on Monday, 11 August at the usual time (6 to 9 pm) and one on Friday, 15 August at a time that is convenient for the majority of the students enrolled in the course.

Week 3 (11 August)

TOPIC 2A: Context of international accounting (including the trend for business enterprise and financial markets to become more global).

Reading:
1. Iqbal Ch. 1.
2. Choi Ch. 1.

Assignments for Possible Hand-in:
1. Iqbal Ch. 1 Discussion Questions 4, 19 and 22 (pp. 25-6)
2. Iqbal Ch. 1 Case 3: Is the Glass Half Full or Half Empty - Parts (1), (4), (5) and (6) (pp. 27-9)

Other Relevant Activities:
1. Iqbal Discussion Questions 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 20, 21 and 23 (pp. 25-6)
2. Choi Ch. 1 Discussion Questions 1 and 4 (pp. 36-7)
TOPIC 2B: Types of differences in national GAAP (Generally Accepted Accounting Principles) including inventories, research and development costs, usage of reserves, and leases.

Reading:

1. Iqbal Ch. 5 pp. 146-52, 171-6. (It is not necessary to remember the practices in all the countries selected for comparison. We will refer to the practices in specific countries in later sessions such as Session 4 on France, Germany, Japan, the Netherlands, UK and USA. Also, you will not be asked to prepare detailed journal entries related to lease accounting but you should understand the financial statement effect of treating a lease as an operating lease as opposed to a finance or capital lease. The reading excludes Iqbal’s discussion of the variation in accounting for income taxes. However, interested students may read Iqbal Ch. 10 pp. 399-406 on deferred income taxes.)

Assignments for Possible Hand-in:

Iqbal Ch. 5 Exercises 5-1, 5-2, 5-3 and 5-4 (pp. 178-9)

Other Relevant Activities:

1. Iqbal Ch. 5 Discussion Questions 10 and 24 (p. 178)
