GMARS aims to promote a “global village” of management accounting research by bringing together a diverse set of the highest-quality research papers, plenary speakers, and researchers from around the world.

GMARS will provide a broader appreciation and understanding of the many theoretical perspectives and research methods that are used to study the global diversity of management-accounting practices.

The fifth annual symposium will be held at

University of New South Wales, June 12-13, 2008

An Emerging Scholars Forum will be held on June 11th, 2008.

GMARS will include plenary and concurrent sessions with discussants. The plenary speakers will be:

- Shannon Anderson
  Rice University & University of Melbourne

- Robert Chenhall
  Monash University

- Mahmoud Ezzamel
  Cardiff Business School

Papers to be submitted by January 31st, 2008. Successful presenters will be informed by March 1st, 2008.
