

SHE PROGRAM 2007 MONDAY 10 DECEMBER
9.00-9.30	REGISTRATION	Foyer of the AGSM
	JOHN B. REID THEATRE	HUGH DIXON ROOM
9.30-11.00	Post Keynesian and Institutional Approaches Post-Keynesians and the theory of imperfect competition in the 1920s and 1930s: 'Years of high theory'- Carlos E. Schönerwald da Silva Demand-led growth theory: An historical approach – Matthew Smith Crowding in or crowding out?- Stefan Kuehn, Joan Muysken, Tom van Veen	Social Capital The institutional economy of education: Understanding socio-institutional reform - What matters? - Khaqan Hassan Najeeb Freedom and responsibility under the complexity of change - Carmen Costea, Constantin Popescu, Alexandru Tasnad For the whole living: identity and diversity - Liana Badea and Miltiade Stanciu
11.00-11.30	MORNING TEA
11.30-1.00	The role of the state and infrastructure How the Australian state has mutated to secure and sustain the contemporary growth regime- Lynne Chester Developing an analytical framework for public private partnerships - Demi Chung The need for further economic evaluation of the impact of privatisation - Michael Johnson	Heterodox economics and philosophy Social visions and the just society: is neoclassical theory an adequate basis for Rawlsian justice? - Wylie Bradford An overview and defense of Whitehead's process philosophy - James Juniper Deleuze, Spinoza and foreclosure of the void - James Juniper
1.00-2.00	LUNCH
2.00-3.30	IAFFEE Session Using feminist standpoint economics to develop cost-effectiveness analyses of 'Assistive Technology': - Ingrid Schraner Can behavioural economics contribute to feminist discussions? - Siobhan Austen and Therese Jefferson Intellectual Property Rights: Indigenous, Feminist and Ecological Economics - Susan Hawthorn	Finance in the history of heterodox economics Choice in Currency: A Hayekian Perspective on International Financial Integration – Anthony Endres Financialization and Marx: Giving capital and labour a financial makeover- Dick Bryan, Randy Martin and Michael Rafferty A Marxian theory of money, credit and crisis - Bill Lucarelli
3.30-4.00	AFTERNOON TEA
4.00-5.30	Human Rights Children's agency and the welfare state: policy priorities and contradictions - Gerry Redmond Poverty, deprivation and human rights - Peter Saunders and Yuvisthi Naidoo Capturing the benefits of trade? Local content requirements in World Trade Organisation law and the human rights-based approach to development - Gillian Moon	Human Capital Firms' investments in human capital as hedging practices in human resources - Donna Cavagnoli The value of work: situating human labour as the core of Marxist political economy - Bill Dunn 'The Skills Argument for Pluralist Economics' – Rod O'Donnell
6.30 Conference Dinner at the Seahorse Restaurant, The Spot

TUESDAY 11 DECEMBER
	JOHN B. REID THEATRE	HUGH DIXON ROOM
9.00 – 10.00	WorkChoices and Labour 1 WorkChoices, unions, the economy and society - John Nevile and Peter Kriesler Taking the 'con' out of Econtech: A review of The Effects of Industrial Relations Reforms since 1993 - George Argyrous	Post Keynesian and Institutional Approaches 2 Dutch institutional reforms since the 1980s: A critical assessment of the OECD institutional indicators - Ruud Gerards, Manuel Müllers and Joan Muysken British emigration to Australia in the twentieth century: The political economy of path dependency - Brian Pinkstone
10.00-11.00	WorkChoices and Labour 2 The role of employment agencies: facilitating the matching or controlling the mobility of labour- Donna Cavagnoli Full employment does not mean low unemployment – William Mitchell and Joan Muysken	Public Housing Dis)connected residents? An exploratory study into social capital amongst Northcott housing residents – Geoffrey Brown Are public housing tenants socially excluded? The case of older public housing tenants in inner-Sydney - Alan Morris
11 00-11.30	MORNING TEA
11.30 – 1.00	Affordable Housing Affordable housing policy: Not identifiable with orthodox economic analysis - Shann Turnbull Housing affordability: An overview, and some economic and ethical Issues - John August Do we want affordable housing? A Georgist analysis of housing unaffordability - Richard Giles	Development The Houdini economy: Orthodox and heterodox policies in the Argentine miracle, 2002 – 2007 - Peter Ross The capitalist development of China and Latin America - Joseph Halevi Spatial Implications of Public Works in South Africa Emma Allen and Anthea Bill
1.00 - 2.00	LUNCH
2.00-3.30	Finance The determinants of financial decisions – temporality, effect and institutional futures - Jocelyn Pixley Do financial derivatives challenge the ontological primacy of the joint stock company - Michael Rafferty and Dick Bryan Developing a monetary model of financial instability- Steve Keen	Innovation and Knowledge Computer grids and the catallaxy paradigm - Colin Richardson Political aspects of innovation - Jerry Courvisanos Neoliberalism and the knowledge economy - Susan Keen