Associate Professor John O’Brien,
School of Organisation and Management, UNSW

Research interests: Public sector employment relations and the new public management; the role of bargaining in managerial culture change projects; unionism in the education industry.

Publications in 2006:

Publications in 2005:
‘Two paths – one road? Creating managerial states in the United Kingdom and Australia’, 19th Conference of the Association of Industrial Relations Academics of Australia and New Zealand, University of Sydney, Australia 9-11 February (with P. Fairbrother)
Public sector trade unions finding their way: A comparative study of British and Australian states, Twentieth Annual Employment Research Unit Conference, Cardiff Business School 6-7 September (with P. Fairbrother)