

Australian School of Business Undergraduate Orientation Semester 1, 2009

Find out how to settle in, survive, succeed, socialise and make the most of your learning experience at the Australian School of Business, UNSW.

---

Tuesday 24 February 2009
Sir John Clancy Auditorium

---

- 9.30am – 9.45am Student Welcome
- 9.45am – 10.00am Meet the Dean of the Australian School of Business
Professor Alec Cameron
- 10.00am – 10.25am Transitioning to UNSW
Associate Professor Prem Ramburuth
Associate Dean Undergraduate Programs and Education
- 10.25am – 11.00am Social life and making friends at UNSW
Australian School of Business student societies
-

11.00am - 11.30am Morning Tea Mathews Pavilion

---

- 11.30am – 12pm Studying successfully at the Australian School of Business
Education Development Unit (EDU), Business Student Services, Careers and Employment, and the UNSW Library.
- 12.00pm – 12.30pm Teaching and learning expectations
Your first-year lecturers
- 12.30pm – 1.00pm Benefits of your UNSW Business degree
Guest speaker from Industry and the International Exchange Program
-

1.00pm – 2.00pm Welcome lunch with senior students Mathews Pavilion

---

- 2.00pm – 4.00pm Tours with Senior Students Depart from the Pavilions
Get oriented and organised for Week 1. The UNSW Yellow Shirts take you on a special campus tour. Find the Business Student Centre, School offices, the EDU, the lecture theatres, computer labs and main tutorial rooms, as well as all the other key places at UNSW.

This is your chance to ask questions and find out more about UNSW facilities and how and where to get your student cards, diaries, books and good coffee!